

Clear Sky

Jeroen Buse - Francette

Clear Sky

It's a clear sky, nothing passing by
and the sun, full of grace, lays a kiss on my face
No clouds anywhere, even time isn't there
Just breathing the air, and the joy - that we share

Clear sky, no reason, no why
Your kiss, full of grace, puts a smile on my face
Shining through the tears, let go of your fears
And welcome the air, and the time - that we share

It's a clear sky, so much passing by
and the sun, full of grace, lays a kiss on my face
Looking in your eyes, I see the clearest skies
I love all that we share, thanks - that you're there
