

You Can Always Cry On My Shoulder

Rock Version

Jeroen Buse - Judy Mara

You Can Always Cry On My Shoulder

There you sit, so weak, so sad
All curled up, so fragile, feeling so bad
It has never been colder
My friend, you can always cry on my shoulder

I remember, so proud you were and so strong
So full of life, the world for you to belong
I see your sadness and it breaks my heart
To see your world so fallen apart
It has never been colder
But you can always cry on my shoulder

Stay strong, my friend
Belong, my friend
For day after day
Your hurt will melt away
And if things ever get colder
You can always cry on my shoulder
